Lady Jacket Volleyball Blog

October 24, 2016

Another busy week is under our belts. It's crazy how far we've come in this seemingly short few months. Since August we have put in so many hours of practice, travel, and play. This season has had highs and lows as does any season. This season has had wins and losses just as any normal season. But this season will always be unique and special unlike any other team's season. Other teams won't have the conversations we have. They won't have the exact fellowship we have. And they won't have the same inside jokes as this team does.

God has hand-picked this team to be right where we are today. Each member of this team is here for a reason and we are so thankful for each other. The Lord has a plan for this team and we are striving every day to see that plan. We took some time this past Saturday to share what God has been teaching us and the power in that is amazing. We also took time to remember what our main goal is. That is to further God's kingdom through volleyball. We all have that thought in the back of our heads but bringing it up again as we think towards the post season tournament made us redirect our focus on an eternal perspective.

Through a great win (Tiffin on 10/18) and tough loss (Indiana Wesleyan 10/21) we are seeking to see God's hand in all. We also look towards an intense week of competition with confidence in Christ because we know that in the end His will, will be done. In the bitter-sweet last home games of the season, we are dwelling in this truth.

Friends, please be praying that we will glorify the Lord and do His will this week in all that we do. That we keep Him the main focus.

Thanks for being a faithful follower of Cedarville Volleyball. God bless!

In Him, for Him.

Tonight's Match

The Cedarville University women's volleyball team hosts the Bellarmine University Knights in non-conference action tonight in the Callan Athletic Center.

Cedarville, under the direction of ninth-year Head Coach Doug Walters (192-128), brings a 16-7 overall record into the match. The squad dropped a five-set verdict to visiting Indiana Wesleyan on Friday night.

Bellarmine, NCAA DII members of the Great Lakes Valley Conference (GLVC), is 15-8 on the year. The Knights defeated league foe Saint Joseph's 3-1 on Saturday in Rensselaer, IN.

Continuing to lead the 2016 Lady Jacket offensive attack is Gabby Olson. The 6-4 junior middle hitter paces the squad with 253 kills and 89 blocks.

Outside hitter Abby Shelton is second on the team with 228 kills and second in digs (226) and service aces (28).

Senior libero Angela Becker leads the back row with 359 digs (4.4/set) and is one of just six Lady Jackets to have over 2,000 career digs (2,048).

Senior setter Kristin Cardwell has recorded 795 assists (9.7/set) and is just 67 assists from reaching 3,000 for her career.

Junior outside hitter Krissy Pratt leads CU with 36 service aces while ranking third with 215 digs.

Bellarmine is led by Head Coach Jenni Grzebin who is in her 4th year at the helm of the program (52-59). The former Xavier Musketeer previously served as an assistant at the University of Buffalo.

Krissy Pratt

Margaret Horihan, a 6-0 junior middle hitter, leads the Knights with 316 kills while ranking third in attack percentage.

The top blocker for Bellarmine is 6-0 sophomore middle hitter Lydia Lange with 70.

Junior setter Allie Muha runs the Bellarmine offense and tops the team with 804 assists (9/set).

Bellarmine leads the all-time series with the Lady Jackets by a 3-0 margin. The Knights posted a 19-25, 25-20, 25-18, 25-14 decision over Cedarville last October 27 in Louisville.
